Dear John:

When I read about Lewis & Associates in the Chamber newsletter I thought that your company might be able to help us and we were not disappointed. Not only did Jim Sealy uncover savings in several important areas of our expenses, but the process has been very efficient, requiring practically no time or interruptions on our part.

As you so well know all businesses, including non-profit organizations, are experiencing ever increasing costs. So we were delighted when the company was able to add thousands of dollars to our annual operating budget.

I will be more than happy to share our experience with any of your prospective clients. Thanks again for a job well done and I wish you the best of luck with your new company.

Sincerely,

Carlos F. Parkman
President and CEO
